TEN CENTS PER WEEK

$25 DOLLAR FINES IN LIQUOR CASES IN CIRCUIT COURT

Selling to Minors Charges Against Most of the Defendants.

Morning Session of the Circuit Court.

ADJOURNS FOR COUNTY FAIR.

Twenty-five dollar fines ruled in today's session of the circuit court began. This morning circuit court was adjourned at 11 o'clock, but several defendants were assessed fines, including several fines for selling liquor.

Aaron Tilley, who operated a houseboat opposite Metropolis until a few months ago, was fined $25 in two cases for selling liquor to a minor. Six indictments for selling liquor without a license were dismissed. John Niehaus, a druggist, and Herbert Blackman were fined $25 each for selling liquor to a minor, and one indictment against each were dismissed. Phillip Stephen was fined $25 for selling liquor to a minor, and a second indictment was dismissed.

The cases against J. C. Pace and T. J. Pace, former saloon keepers at Fifth and Norton streets, charged with selling liquor to minors were left open. It is thought that an agreement will be reached between the attorneys for the prosecution and the attorneys for the defense.

The appeal of Walter Williams, colored, was costly as this morning he was found guilty and was fined.

For a Dry Memphis.

Memphis, Sept. 29.—Asking an injunction restraining 108 defendants from carrying on the saloon business and demanding that the chancery court declare them nuisances and land its powerful machinery to have them abated, the bill prepared by the Law Enforcement league is now in shape and is to be filed shortly.

MEN WHO ESCAPED JAIL CAPTURED AT PARAGOULD.

Union City, Tenn., Sept. 29.—Peto and Ed Branham, the two young men who were convicted at the last term of the circuit court here with the murder of a young man on Reelfoot lake for stealing a quart of whisky, and were sentenced to the state penitentiary, and who broke jail here some months ago, were recaptured at Paragould, Ark., and brought back here, and placed in jail, where they were awaiting the result of an appeal to the supreme court in their cases.

Special Services

All the protestant churches will hold special services tonight and tomorrow night, preparatory to the Torrey revival, which opens Sunday at the Auditorium rink.

DOC PAYNE A SUICIDE.

Former Baseball Club Trainer Despondent Over Family Troubles.

Cleveland, Sept. 29.—Despondent because his wife refused to give up her suit for divorce and return to him, James Payne, former trainer of the Cleveland baseball club, and a well known wrestler, pugilist and athlete, committed suicide today. Payne was known all over the county as "Doc."

GERMAN STRIKES AROUSING FEARS

PAPERS CALL ON GOVERNMENT TO PUT TROUBLE DOWN WITH IRON HAND.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—Realizing that unless strike disorders in the Mosbitt district of Berlin, are speedily suppressed, the capital will be in the grasp of the lawless element, Berlin newspapers unite today in a demand on the authorities for "blood and iron" methods of handling the strikers. "The author having proved inadequate, let us now have the bullet," pleads one paper. Two hundred police, strikers and onlookers were injured in last night's riot, the worst in history.

Paducah's Invitation Accepted By Kentucky Doctors and They'll Hold Next Convention Here

Physicians From This City in Attendance at Lexington Win Over State Medical Society This Morning.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The Kentucky State Medical society today elected to accept the invitation to meet at Paducah next year. Five or six hundred of Kentucky's representative physicians will attend with their wives and sweethearts.

Among those, who are here and have been instrumental in getting the meeting for Paducah are Drs. Frank Boyd, J. T. Reddick, H. G. Reynolds, C. E. Kidd, P. H. Stewart and W. W. Richardson.

Dr. J. H. Carpenter, of Stanford, was elected president of the Kentucky Medical association and Dr. A. T. McCormack, of Bowling Green, secretary.

Court of Appeals.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 29. (Special.)—In the appellate court Hall vs. Ballard county, was affirmed; Redden vs. commonwealth, from Graves county, was reversed on errors in instructions of trial judge in a killing case. In the Hall case the question involved was the amount of commissions due the sheriff for collecting school taxes of Ballard county. The appellate court upheld the fiscal court's allowance of 10 per cent on the first $5,000 and 4 per cent of each fund.

Mysterious Death.

Shelbyville, Ky., Sept. 29. (Special.)—C. B. Smith, a merchant, was found dead in his apartments with a bullet in his head. The coroner's jury says it is suicide. The police think it is murder. An investigation is on.

Mrs. Mattie Hannon.

Hickman, Ky., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Mattie Hannon, one of the oldest residents of the State Line neighborhood, seven miles from here, died at the home of her son Monday. She was 70 years old. She had resided in that community continuously for more than half a century, and was held in high esteem. Death was the result of abscess on one of her lungs, from which she had suffered for three or four months. She is survived by one son, Will J. Hannon, with whom she made her home. She was a member of the Baptist church and a good, faithful Christian lady.

BROTHER IS ARRESTED FOR HIS INTERFERENCE

Crazed with liquor, Logan Hogan, of Princeton, was arrested this morning by Sergeant Lige Cross and Patrolman H. H. Garrett. Hogan was wild, and strong as a bull. In Kelly's saloon on South Second street he started on a rampage, and five men were exhausted from holding him when the police arrived. He was loaded in the patrol wagon and by strenuous work was weighted down. At the police station his brother, John Hogan met him. As a result, John was arrested on the charge of interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. While carrying Hogan to a cell, Sergeant Cross was thrown down, and bruised.

Burlington Reaches Metropolis Today

Metropolis, Ill., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The Burlington railroad crossed the corporation line of Metropolis with its rails at 10 o'clock this morning. The occasion was marked by the ringing of all the bells and the blowing of the whistles in the city. A great crowd was called out by the demonstration and there is a general rejoicing and an informal celebration in progress.

The work of grading and filling the terminals and the approaches to the station site on Broadway between Fifth and Sixth streets and to the bridge site, is progressing, and the track laying crew will follow the graders as rapidly as possible. The Illinois Central is working on its depot site on the river front; but it is believed a union station will be erected.

Kills His Stepfather.

Hickman, Ky., Sept. 29.—John Porter shot and instantly killed his stepfather, Jake Wright, near this city yesterday afternoon. Wright was beating his wife and Porter had warned him he would kill him if he did so again. Porter surrendered immediately after the killing.

Young Boys Accused.

The alleged theft of some elder proved an interesting trial this morning. Lon Faughn and Roy Richardson, two young boys, were charged with petit larceny, being accused of stealing a jug of elder from J. D. McEllya, of Maxon Mills. Their defense was that a boy working on McEllya's farm gave them the elder. The evidence was conflicting, and Judge Reed instructed the jury that the charge should be trespass. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperature for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page.

RAFFLES VISITS RESIDENCE WITH SKELETON KEYS

Miss Bond Finds Rooms Ransacked and Family Jewelry Missing.

Neighbors Saw Man Leaving
The House.

OTHER PLACES ARE ENTERED.

A professional Raffles attired in a dark suit of clothes opened the front door of the residence of Druggist John K. Bonds, 512 Clay street, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a skeleton key and picked out a pearl set gold ring, a pair of gold rim spectacles and about $5 in change from a dresser drawer, containing other valuable jewelry that was left because names and initials were engraved on the articles.

The robbery was discovered shortly after 4 o'clock when Miss Margaret Bonds returned home from school. Entering the first room she found the furniture disarranged, and going into the second room, the disorder was still greater. The third room from which the property was taken, would have been in little worse condition had a cyclone visited it. Engraved jewelry was left, showing that the thief was taking no chances in being caught.

Mrs. George Rawleigh, living at Sixth and Clay streets, saw a low and heavy set man, wearing a black derby hat, leave the Bonds' residence about 3 o'clock. He was stooped and walked very rapidly.

This adds another robbery to the list of houses entered in that neighborhood in the last two weeks. A professional daylight thief is operating. The thief doubtless used a skeleton key in entering the house, as none of the doors or windows were unfastened.

The robbery was reported to Night Captain John Dorian at police headquarters at 6:30 o'clock, and the police began a search.

HOLTSLOW SAYS HE WANTED THREE

LEGISLATOR TESTIFIES BEFORE
SENATE COMMITTEE ON LORIMER CASE.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—The fact that State Senator Holtslow's confession that he received $2,500 for his Lorimer vote was influenced by assurance that an indictment, charging perjury, would be quashed, was developed today by the senatorial committee. Holtslow was indicted in Sangamon county in connection with furniture deals, involving legislators. After declaring his confession was not influenced, Holtslow admitted that State's Attorney B. R. Keok would dismiss his indictment.

"Were you not more interested in getting the indictment dismissed than in doing your duty?" he was asked.

"Yes, I was very anxious to have the indictment dismissed," Holtslow replied. "It was dismissed the day I signed the confession."

Kicked in the Face

While unhitching a horse this morning, Mrs. George Beyer, 422 North Sixteenth street, was kicked in the face. Both her upper and lower lips were cut, and several stitches were required to close the wounds. She was stunned for several hours. Her entire head was bruised, but her injuries are not considered serious. Drs. W. J. Bass and W. C. Eubanks attended her.

COUNTY COURT CLERKS WILL ARRIVE TOMORROW

Tomorrow the annual meeting of the Kentucky County Court Clerks' association will begin. The clerks will meet at the court house at 10 o'clock in the county court room, where the business sessions will be held. The clerks will arrive tonight while some of the clerks will not arrive until tomorrow morning. E. P. Green, county court clerk of Livingston county, arrived today. E. G. Floyd, state inspector arrived today from Mayfield, and will remain over in Paducah to attend the meeting.

GREATEST CROWD EVER IN PADUCAH ON STREET TODAY

Fine Weather and Local Attractions Bring Them From Every Section.

Trains and Boats Are Loaded
With Humanity.

WAGON YARDS HAVE TO CLOSE.

What is considered the largest crowd in Paducah in many years thronged the streets today. The combined attraction of the Tri-State fair and the circus proved too strong a combination for the citizens of the adjoining counties to remain at home, and they all came to Paducah. Some came by boats, more by railroads, and still others arrived in wagons and vehicles. Everybody was out for a good time, and they had it.

Yesterday the visitors for the fair began to arrive, and last night the transient population became larger. All of the hotels were crowded, and the restaurants did a thriving business. Early this morning the streets were well filled with visitors who spent the early hours sightseeing. Long before the people in the business district began their rush to work the streets resembled the appearance at noon.

The morning trains added much to the crowd. The Cairo train arrived at 8 o'clock and seven coaches were filled to suffocation. It is a fact that people were left at some of the small stations because there was not room for them. All the other incoming trains were crowded likewise. The steamboats were crowded, too, and southern Illinois contributed generously to the supply of visitors. Many from Tennessee arrived, and old-time citizens cannot remember when there was such a jam on Broadway.

As early as 9 o'clock it was not easy for a pedestrian on Broadway, and shortly after 10 o'clock both sides of Broadway were lined with solid masses of humanity. The crowd waited for the Ringling Brothers' circus parade, which was delayed over an hour because of the lateness in arriving.

This afternoon the crowd scattered out. Some went to the circus while others attended the fair and races, and will attend the show tonight. Business men did a thriving business as the visitors were supplied with money generously.

The police were kept on the jump today, but practically no trouble was reported for the size of the crowd. Chief of Police Singery had some of the night
